Short info about me

Started coding in 2023 and explored everything from desktop apps to data analytics, but I quickly fell in love with React and the frontend world. I enjoy turning Figma concepts into clean, responsive interfaces and ship smooth user experiences with React, Next.js, and TypeScript. Technically, I focus on semantic HTML, modern CSS (SCSS/Tailwind), accessibility, performance, and component-driven architectures that are easy to maintain and extend. I also have hands-on experience with React Native (Expo) for mobile apps, WordPress for CMS-driven sites, REST API integration, and SQL fundamentals. I'm responsible and organized, communicate clearly, and take ownership—curious by default and steady under pressure.
